Gospel Reflection

February 26, 2012

1st Sunday of Lent

Gn 9:8-15; Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9;

1 Pt 3:18-22; Mk 1:12-15

After the biblical flood, God set a rainbow in the sky as a sign of God's covenant love. Peter, in his epistle, saw the flood as a metaphor for baptism, the pattern for our life in Christ. In this bath we drown to our former lives. Liberated from sin and death, which threatens to destroy us, we rise to a new life in Christ.

The sacrament of baptism is not merely a physical cleansing; it is a spiritual purification of the whole heart, soul, and mind. In baptism, Jesus enters the waters of our corrupt state and rises victorious over the powers of evil. He emerges triumphantly to announce the good news of God's reign: "This is the time of fulfillment! Reform your lives!" The light of Christ pierces the darkness for all who walk in truth and love.

For Reflection: When do the storms of life put me to the test? Where have I seen rainbows?

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincenz dēPaul Nēws:

In today's Gospel, Jesus overcomes the temptations to wealth, power and esteem. As we begin Lent, may we continue to open our hearts to the grace of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

We would like to thank you for your tremendous support in our cry for food for Project Love this month. Without your help, many people would have been without. No words can adequately express our gratitude.

We are waiting to help someone or a family who is out of work and needs assistance. Maybe they are experiencing a temporary setback. Please suggest to them to call 374-8800 and leave a message. Someone from our Society of St. Vincent de Paul will return their call.
