Gospel Reflection

April 22, 2012

3rd Sunday of Easter

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

1 Jn 2:1-5

Lk 24:35-48

Peter's speech links God's promises to the patriarchs with the paschal mystery. Through Jesus's death and resurrection, foretold by the prophets of Israel, the whole world comes to know the blessings of God promised to Abraham and his descendants.

The author of the First Letter of John reminds us that Christ died for our sins and "those of the whole world" (v 2). Because of this we share in the life and love of God. He writes of the "antichrists (who) went out from us" (vv 18-19); these are members of his own faith community who corrupted the truth of the gospel. The gospel is given for our good, but some would corrupt the message of the gospel because it does not agree with their own views. We are called to conform ourselves to God.

Jesus's appearance to the disciples in Jerusalem on Easter night confirms the witness of the disciples from Emmaus: he is alive! Yet they still doubt. So he invites them to look at his wounds and to touch his risen body. Then he asks them for something to eat to dispel any further doubt: a ghost does not eat. That the early church remembers stories of doubt associated with Jesus's closest followers indicates that even those who knew Jesus best had a hard time accepting the resurrection at first. Doubt is part of the faith journey.

For reflection: Is my faith based on what makes me comfortable, or is it based on God's truths? What happens when there is a conflict between God's words and my own thoughts, beliefs, and values?

Faith Formation

Looking for a few good men (and some good women, too!)

The 10 minutes-a-day reading of the New Testament has been a wonderful exercise in understanding scripture. It is not too late to join us on Thursday mornings from 9:15-11 AM in the Faith Formation Office to explore this wonderful book we call the bible. We will provide coffee and snacks. We just ask that you bring yourself and a bible. You do not have to attend each week. Even if you are only able to attend once a month, we are sure to provide you with something to think about that will enrich your faith and your reading of the bible. All adults in the parish are always welcome.

Vacation Bible School ~ Save the Dates!

Holy Name Vacation Bible School will be June 25-29, 9:00-11:30 AM in the gym of the parish center. Our theme this year is "National Parks." Registrations will be taken in May. Watch the bulletin for more details and where/how to register. The cost is $15.00 per child. Scholarships are available upon request. Children who are 3 years old and potty trained up to those who have finished fourth grade are welcome to attend. If you would like to help out or have a teen that would like to help out, contact Mercedes Austgen @ 374-7261 or maustgen9092@att.net. All adults must have Virtus training. (We will provide this if you are not already trained.)

Volunteers for Summer Camp Needed

Share Foundation with the Handicapped is looking for individuals to work at summer camps for developmentally disabled adults. Teachers, Nurses, cooks, homemakers, college students, retirees, temporarily unemployed or anyone over 18, wanting to share their time and talents with our special campers are needed. Camp runs for six consecutive weeks beginning June 10. Weekends off. Orientations given. Come for one week or all six! A stipend or service hours can be given. Call Sandy Furman at 219-778-2585 or email: sfurman@sharefoundation.org.

April is Child Abuse Awareness Month

Indiana "Blue Saturday/Sunday" Faith Initiative Day

Prevent Child Abuse Lake County is asking all churches to join them in raising awareness of Child Abuse and Neglect and to do whatever we can to prevent the pain of abuse and neglect of children before it occurs.

It is imperative that our church be a leader in Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention and to be a resource and support system to all families. Our church will be a part of the "Blue Saturday/Sunday" Faith Initiative Day by taking the time during our services on April 28/29, 2012 to:

- Pray for children in Lake County who have died from child abuse and neglect.
- Pray for children in Lake County who have been abused and neglected.
- Pray for parents and caregivers who are doing their very best to protect and love their children.
- Pray for professionals who help children and families every day.

Display or wear a royal blue ribbon in support of Preventing Child Abuse and Neglect in Indiana.

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul News:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains that the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us.

Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? We meet at 6:00 PM the second Thursday of the month.

We are waiting to help someone or a family who is out of work and needs assistance. Maybe they are experiencing a temporary setback. Please suggest to them to call 374-8800 and leave a message. Someone from our Society of St. Vincent de Paul will return their call.
